Your rights at work

The information in this activity kit is based on the CLEO publication called Your rights at work. Read the publication before using the activity kit, and keep it on hand for reference as you guide learners through the activities. You can find it on CLEO's website at cleo.on.ca. To order free copies for your class, you can use the online order form.

Please take note

Ontario's Employment Standards Act (ESA) is a law that outlines the rights of employees and the responsibilities of employers. The ESA sets minimum standards for working conditions. Many employers offer better.

Minimum wage may change over time. The minimum wage discussed in this kit is the general minimum wage as of October 1, 2024. To check the current minimum wage or for more information, visit the Government of Ontario's Your guide to the Employment Standards Act.

The information in these activities applies to most but not all workers. Not all jobs are covered by the ESA, and in some cases only parts of the ESA apply. Some industries, such as banks, airlines, trucking, and broadcasting, are regulated by the federal government.

Immigration status does not matter. You do not need to be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or holder of a work permit to be covered by the ESA.

The information in these activities is not a substitute for legal advice. Every situation is different so learners with concerns should get legal help. They can contact their local community legal clinic. To find the nearest community legal clinic, go to Legal Aid Ontario's website at legalaid.on.ca/legal-clinics/ or call Legal Aid Ontario toll-free at 1-800-668-8258.

Minimum wage

A. Read the information.

Ontario has a minimum wage. For most jobs, it is $17.20 an hour.

A wage below minimum wage is not legal.

This is Diego.
He is a cleaner.
His wage is $17.20 an hour.
It is minimum wage.

Diego
Cleaner
$17.20 an hour

Amalia
Security guard
$18.00 an hour

Marc
Dishwasher
$13.00 an hour

Amalia's wage is above minimum wage. It is legal.

Marc's wage is below minimum wage. It is not legal.

TEACHING NOTES

Curriculum connections

LINC / Adult ESL:

Theme: Employment

Topic: Working in Canada

Theme: Canadian Law

Topic: Employment Law

Theme: Community & Government Services

Topic: Counselling & Advocacy

Vocabulary

law, legal, wage, minimum wage, hour, above, below, dishwasher, cleaner, security guard, work, get, pay, pay stub, pay period, rate of pay, wages, total

Ask if any learners know what minimum wage is and why it is called minimum wage. You may wish to introduce the concept of “minimum” with a situation in which lower than minimum is not OK (for example: minimum height requirement to ride a roller coaster) or not legal (minimum drinking age, minimum driving age) and then explain that it is also not legal for an employer to pay less than minimum wage. Explain that minimum wage is set by the Ontario government, and may go up from time to time. Minimum wage rates can be found at: www.labour.gov.on.ca/english/es/pubs/guide/minwage.php.

Learners can listen as you read the opening sentences. They can look at the top picture and talk about what they see, then read the sentences beside the picture together. They can do the same with the pictures of the three workers. You can elicit the categories “name”, “job”, and “wage”, and ask questions about the information below the pictures.

B. You can use the three hourly wages in A or choose minimum wage and two other wages to demonstrate the difference. Learners listen and write the wage in the correct space. Learners could practise in pairs, with one learner saying an hourly wage and the other saying if it is above or below minimum wage, and if it is legal or not legal.

The comprehension and spelling activities allow for further practice and development of reading and literacy skills. The spelling activity provides an opportunity for pronunciation practice, as all the missing vowels are in syllables that are stressed.

Answers:

C.     1. b    2. c    3. e    4. a    5. d

D.     1. job        2. minimum    3. wage
        4. above      5. below        6. legal

Note: See Minimum wage: Four workers in the ESL Activity kit Laws about pay CLB 2 for an activity teaching learners about minimum wage for students and homeworkers.

Diego's pay stub

Explain what a pay stub (or statement of wages) is and that Diego's employer must give him his pay stub on or before his payday. Stress the importance of keeping pay stubs and other records.

You may want to discuss different methods of payment, such as cash, cheque, and direct deposit. You may also want to point out that there are different pay periods and that a two-week pay period is common for many kinds of work.

See Diego's pay stub in the ESL activity kit Laws about pay CLB 2 for a statement of wages that includes deductions.

B. You can design your own listening activity to draw attention to the various components of the pay stub. Suggested listening activity: Circle Diego's last name. Underline the rate of pay. Put a check mark beside the number of hours Diego worked. Put an x beside Diego's wages.

Answers:

C.     1. Yes        2. No        3. No
        4. Yes        5. Yes        6. No
